

LEPTO

Emamectin benzoate 5% SG

Lepto is an insecticide of biological origin used to control lepidopteran pests with stomach action.

Features:

- ➔ an unique physiological mode of action that reducing the possibility of cross-resistance to other chemicals
- ➔ highest efficacy against key lepidopteran pests at the low dose rate
- ➔ kills larvae even within the egg before hatching increasing residual activity

Available SKUs: 1 kg, 500g, 250g, 100g, 50g

Benefits:

long duration control

strong protection

broad-spectrum control

crops	target pests	dose/acre
red gram chickpea	pod borer	90 g
cotton	bollworms	90 g
okra	fruit borer, shoot borer	70 g
cabbage	diamondback moth	60-80 g
chilli	fruit borer, mites, thrips	80 g
grape	thrips	50-90 g
brinjal	fruit borer, shoot borer	80 g

Antidote: No specific antidote. Treat symptomatically.